THE CONVALESCENT HOME

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

WELLESLEY HILLS.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-third Annual Report.

The number of children treated during the year was 739, an increase of 104 over 1906, with a daily average of 51. Contagious diseases have as usual broken out in mild forms from time to time, causing the temporary closing of the doors, but as a rule the health of the patients has been wonderfully good, responding quickly to the excellent treatment and fresh country air. The Kindergarten work which was started two years ago is now regarded as indispensable, because the actual benefit to health derived from the amusing occupations and games is evident to all.

A nominal charge is made for the board and care of each patient, as the experience of all hospitals shows that it is wise to do so, but it is hardly necessary to say that no poor child is turned away because of inability on the part of parent or guardian to pay.

The patients are sent out from the Hospital once a week in care of a house-surgeon and trained nurse in a special electric car provided by the Hospital Trustees, and are met at Wellesley Hills by the foreman of the Home, who brings with him a load of convalescents who return in the car to the Hospital, where they are examined by the doctors before being returned to their own homes.

Unusually heavy expenses have had to be met during the year, as the drainage system proved utterly inadequate, necessitating many expensive changes and additions. It is now under the supervision of Messrs. Densmore and Leclear, who already have under regular inspection the heating, lighting, and plumbing plants. Another expense was the building of a large pavilion or covered piazza attached to one of the shacks, which has been of inestimable value to the patients during the summer months. The resources of the Institution not being sufficient to cover expenses, it has been necessary to keep two of the shacks unoccupied, to the regret of the managers as well as the doctors, who are more desirous each year of sending tubercular cases for the open-air treatment. The work increases steadily, and notwithstanding generous bequests and gifts, the annual expenditure is always in excess of the income, so that an appeal for help is unavoidable each year. A Permanent Fund was recently started with two donations given for that special purpose, and any addition to this fund, an increase of annual subscribers, or gifts of money, no matter how small, are urgently solicited.

The Home as well as the Hospital is under the supervision of the Sisters of St. Margaret, for whose generous and unfailing devotion the Managers wish to express their gratitude. Miss Davidson, the head nurse as well as housekeeper, has most ably fulfilled her duties, with two assistant trained nurses, Miss Dacey and Miss Eddy, and a corps of other nurses and ward-maids. Miss Robinson, a former assistant and a most intelligent and executive worker, was obliged to leave in the autumn, to the regret of her associates. Every week the Home is regularly visited by doctors and surgeons from the Hospital, and the nurses also are sent from there. In cases of sudden illness Dr. Bancroft of Wellesley very kindly gives his services.

The Managers, with about twenty volunteer helpers, meet once a week during the winter at the Hospital to cut out work, comprising all the bed and table linen, towels, bandages, surgeons' jackets and aprons, and clothing for the children in the Hospital and Home. A special committee of two oversees this work, which is finally given to poor women to be finished. Last year the number of articles made amounted to 4857.

During the year the Home has met with a great loss in the resignation of Mrs. E. L. Davis as Vice-President, which office she has held since 1892, and she was the first Treasurer of the Home in 1869, when it was known as the Ladies' Aid Association. From that time until poor health compelled her to resign, her devotion and zeal have been unflagging. Especially did she devote time and energy to the arranging, planning, and cutting out of the very large amount of work already referred to in this Report. The loss is an irreparable one and these few words do not even attempt to express how much her absence is felt by each member of the Board.

Before closing this Report the Managers would like not only to thank all those friends whose generosity has made the Convalescent Home a possibility, but would urge them to visit the Institution at Wellesley Hills and see for themselves the work that is being done there. Visitors are always welcome and it is hoped that they will be rewarded for any trouble they may have taken by the sight of the clean, happy children in their large sunny playroom or shady pavilion, according to the season of the year.

Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

Inc. 1887

BOSTON

For the Year 1908

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

WELLESLEY HILLS.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-fourth Annual Report.

The Convalescent Home this year marks its third anniversary in the new building which replaces the one destroyed by fire on the 20th of January, 1903.

The number of patients treated during the year was 671, with a daily average of 56. The number of those treated in 1907 was 739, with a daily average of 51.

Occasional contagious diseases have been the only interruption to the smooth running of the work, and twice during an epidemic of measles it was thought best to send all the patients away and to close the doors of the Home while a thorough disinfecting took place. It is hoped that this unfortunate necessity may be obviated in the future, as the Trustees of The Children's Hospital have enlarged their contagious department and as soon as any case of infection appears at the Home, the patient is despatched to the Hospital to be cared for. The Managers of the Convalescent Home also hope and intend eventually to make better arrangements for the accommodation of suspected infectious cases than they at present possess.

The beds at the Home are equally divided between the surgical and medical convalescents, and it has been decided to keep ten beds empty as a rule in order to be always ready for emergencies.

The shack system, so highly commended by the doctors, is maintained, but in cold weather it is difficult to heat the rooms into which direct fresh air is continuously introduced day and night, and the expense for fuel consequently is very great, necessitating the consumption of a ton of coal per day. This heavy expense, together with the inevitable repairs and the large staff of servants required to run so important an institution, makes it impossible to keep the expenses within the limits of the income, and the Managers will be regretfully obliged to issue their usual appeal for help to carry on the work.

The kindergarten lessons continue to play a very important part in the care of the children, and Miss Bostwick has proved herself a most efficient and devoted teacher. On the occasions of the Christmas tree, which the Managers give every year to the children at the Hospital as well as at the Home, each lady is the grateful recipient of an attractive little present made by the patients with the help of their kindergarten teacher, and the carols sung by them make one of the most enjoyable features of the day.

The patients are sent to the Home once a week in a special electric car which carries them to Wellesley Hills, under the care of a trained nurse and house surgeon. There they are met by the man employed at the Home, who skillfully stows them away in the depths of a large ambulance, and thus they reach their destination in ease and safety.

A nominal charge is made for board and care at the Home, but if the parent or guardian be unable to pay, no difference is made in the conscientious care bestowed upon the child.

The Hospital and Home are under the supervision of the Sisters of St. Margaret, of whose devotion and intelligent management it is a pleasure to speak with the greatest appreciation and gratitude.

Miss Davidson is still the head nurse as well as housekeeper at the Home, and under her careful direction and with the aid of efficient nurses and helpers all the work runs smoothly and well.

The Managers with a corps of volunteer helpers meet at the Hospital once a week during the winter to cut out all the bed and table linen, towels and bandages, surgeons' jackets and aprons, and clothing for the children both in Hospital and Home. This work is given out later to poor women to be finished.

A Permanent Fund was started a year ago, and additions to this fund, an increase of Annual Subscribers, or gifts of money, no matter how small, are urgently solicited. Visitors are always welcome at the Home, where the appealing sight of so many little children on whom the burden of pain has weighed heavily is the strongest argument in favor of trying to improve their condition and in many cases restoring them to health and strength.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME.

Extract from the By-Laws.—The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of The Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage the Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve, and nurse such children—patients from that Hospital—as may be sent to this Home.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise, and bequeath to THE CONVALESCENT HOME OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, in the City of Boston, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

BOSTON

For the Year 1909

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

WELLESLEY HILLS.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-fifth Annual Report, and in so doing would call attention to the fact that the Home as a Corporation has existed for twenty-five years, whereas as an Institution it dates back to 1874, in which year the Managers, known at that time as The Ladies' Aid Association, hired a small house in Wellesley with accommodations for only about fifteen children. At first it was deemed possible to keep the Home open only during the warmer months of the year, and it was closed in winter, but the doctors of the Children's Hospital became more and more urgent in their demands for country air and convalescent treatment for their patients, and at last in 1892 a large building was erected on about thirty acres of land in Wellesley Hills, the land being the gift of Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, and this building was kept open all the year round.

In January, 1903, the Home was destroyed by fire, and during the work of rebuilding a house was hired in the vicinity, and while in these temporary quarters the shack system, which has since then been so widely adopted for all tuberculous and nervous diseases, was first put into practice. The present building was completed in 1905.

All stages of convalescence are now treated there, from those on stretchers who have recently undergone serious operations, and others who need to regain strength after severe attacks of acute illness, to those whose convalescence must be slow and dependent on months of careful nursing and attention. The number of patients treated during the year was 663, with a daily average of 63.4. The number of those treated in 1908 was 671, with a daily average of 56.

The one shack remaining vacant was furnished by Dr. Rotch, with money given to him by a friend for that purpose, for the special benefit of pre-tuberculous girl patients, thus bringing the total number of beds up to 90.

The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and the practice of the Home is to keep ten of them vacant, as a rule, in order to be ready for all emergencies. Two cases of scarlet fever broke out in the spring, but fortunately were light and no epidemic ensued.

The regular work at the Home has been carried on with very few changes, although each year numerous inevitable repairs, the higher cost of labor, materials, and foodstuffs, as well as a few extra wants, such as another dressing-room radiator, an electric light in the cellar and another in the stable, a new shed for fumigating the barge, and a new carriage, added to the great daily expense of running such a large institution, make it impossible to keep the expenses within the limits of the income, and the usual annual appeal for money will be forthcoming, much as the Managers deplore such a necessity. The patients are sent to the Home from the Hospital once a week in a special electric car, under the care of a trained nurse and house doctor, and the barge from the Home meets them at Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. The kindergarten lessons continue to form an important part of the successful care of the children, and Miss Bostwick is a most efficient and devoted teacher, and the patients are rarely if ever too ill to enjoy the attractive games, songs, and fancy work that she teaches them.

Miss Davidson is still the head nurse as well as housekeeper, and under her skillful guidance, with the efficient help of nurses and ward-maids, all runs smoothly and well.

Both the Children's Hospital and the Convalescent Home are under the superintendence of the Sisters of St. Margaret, to whom grateful thanks are offered for their unselfish devotion and intelligent management.

The Managers, with a corps of volunteer helpers, meet once a week at the Hospital during the winter to cut out all the clothing for the children, the surgeons' aprons and jackets, and all the bed and table linen, towels and bandages, both for Hospital and Home. This work is given out later to poor women to be finished.

A gift of $1,500 for the Permanent Fund and $500 for a Memorial Bed have been received, and in October the experiment was tried of having Donation Day at the Home. Seven hundred postal cards were sent out and notices were put in the local as well as the Boston newspapers. The result was $1,793, which was certainly most gratifying, but notwithstanding this substantial aid, annual subscriptions and donations, no matter how small, are more than ever urgently solicited. Visitors are always welcome, and the Managers feel that if more people would take the trouble to go to the Home, which is easily reached by railroad or electric cars, the sight of so many children, clean, happy, and well cared for, would repay them for the efforts they had made. There are a few little sufferers for whom no human aid can avail, but even to these unfortunates fresh air, cleanliness, and intelligent nursing carry a degree of comfort which gives a semblance of happiness to their last hours.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise, and bequeath to THE CONVALESCENT HOME OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, in the City of Boston, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

BOSTON

For the Year 1910

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

WELLESLEY HILLS.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-Sixth Annual Report. This Institution, formerly known as The Ladies' Aid Association, was started in 1869, the year of the incorporation of The Children's Hospital. In 1874 the first Convalescent Home was opened in a small house hired for the purpose in Wellesley with accommodations for fifteen patients. The Association was incorporated under its present name in 1884, and in 1892 the first Home was built on the site of the present building. In 1894 it was kept open all the year round for the first time.

In 1903 the Home was destroyed by fire, but a house was hired in Wellesley Hills in which to carry on the work temporarily, and the shack system, which has proved so beneficial, was inaugurated. In 1905 the present building was completed with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and ten beds are usually kept vacant in order to be ready for sudden emergencies. The cases treated range from those just recovering from acute attacks of illness or serious operations, to those suffering from long and exhausting diseases, whose cure depends upon months of careful nursing and attention. Number of patients treated during the year was 902, with a daily average of 61. The number of patients treated in 1909 was 663, with a daily average of 63.4.

The patients are sent to the Home from the hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car, in charge of a doctor and trained nurse, and the barge from the Home meets them in Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. Kindergarten lessons five times a week form an important part of the successful treatment of the children, who all love their lessons, and those who are strong enough crowd round the teacher in joyful anticipation of a new game, song, or piece of work. Miss Bostwick, the former teacher, who has been untiring and most successful in her work, has been obliged to leave, to the regret of the Managers, and Miss Rowen has taken her place.

A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused even when the parents or guardians are unable to pay anything. Miss Davidson is most efficient as head nurse and housekeeper, and with the help of nurses and ward-maids, skillfully directs the running of the Institution. The Sisters of St. Margaret, who are in charge of the Hospital, are also superintendents of the Home, and nothing can exceed the interest and intelligent supervision of these devoted women, to whom the Managers offer their grateful thanks. The work during the year has been carried on with practically no changes. Some necessary painting, new slates on the roof, gutters, fences, and repairs were unavoidable, and notwithstanding the utmost care and economy the usual excess of expenditure over income has to be met, and the managers will be obliged later to make their annual appeal for help. Beside the work at the Home the Managers supply all the clothing for the Hospital patients, as well as the bed and table linen, towels and bandages, and the surgeons' aprons and jackets. They meet once a week during the winter with a corps of volunteer helpers to cut out the above work, which is given later to poor women to be finished. In addition the Convalescent Home provides Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and Christmas trees for Hospital and Home, and all the boots and shoes and other ready-made articles for both Institutions. This statement is made to show the public how the money that they have so generously given in the past is expended.

The experiment of Donation Day at the Home was repeated in November, and the result was $244 beside vegetables, fruit, and groceries. A donation of several thousand picture postcards of the Home was made, in the hope that the sale of these might become a source of income.

A gift of $1,500 for the Permanent Fund has been received, but other donations have fallen off during the year, and as it has become necessary to draw upon the principal in order to meet the current expenses, that means a diminution of the annual receipts.

More subscribers are earnestly desired and no amount of money is too small to be gratefully accepted and acknowledged. The Managers cordially invite all those who have not yet visited the Home, to do so, as they feel sure that the pathetic and yet reassuring sight of so many small sufferers, all tenderly cared for, and the majority on the road to recovery, will be a pleasure to the kind friends who have contributed to their need.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

DECEMBER, 1910.

Obituary

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital desire to express, however inadequately, their irreparable sense of loss in the recent death of their beloved President, Mrs. Oliver W. Peabody. Thirty-seven years ago she became a Manager of the Home, later was elected Vice-President, and finally in 1892 she became President, a position which she has occupied ever since. It is difficult to find the right words to describe what she has been to this Institution to which she freely gave so much of her heart, her intellect, and her life. She was an inspiration and example to all those associated with her; the dull routine of monthly meetings seemed illuminated by her presence; her good judgment in all practical matters, her deep religious sense of what was right, her sympathy with the sick and suffering children, her unfailing charm and delightful sense of humor, ever ready to smooth over any difficulty almost before it arose, all contributed to endear her to her associates, who offer this slight tribute to her memory. At the end of her long and useful life it may be truly said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE CONVALESCENT HOME.

Extract from the By-Laws. — The Corporation shall be composed of all persons who have been members of the Board of Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association of The Children's Hospital; or who have been or may be members of the Board of Managers of the Corporation; and of such other persons, if any, who have contributed, or may hereafter contribute, not less than one hundred dollars at any one time to the funds of said Association or of this Corporation; and who may be elected members thereof by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the whole Board of Managers.

ANNIE N. CURTIS, Treasurer.

I find this correct and properly vouched.

OLGA E. MONKS.

NOTE — This Report was ready for the Annual Meeting on the second of January, and is subject to approval at the Adjourned Meeting which will be held later, subject to the call of the Secretary.

The Convalescent Home was incorporated in the year 1884.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise, and bequeath to THE CONVALESCENT HOME OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, in the City of Boston, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

BOSTON

For the Year 1911

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,

WELLESLEY HILLS.

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-Seventh Annual Report. This Institution, formerly known as The Ladies' Aid Association, was started in 1869, the year of the incorporation of The Children's Hospital. In 1874 the first Convalescent Home was opened in a small house hired for the purpose in Wellesley with accommodations for fifteen patients. The Association was incorporated under its present name in 1884, and in 1892 the first Home was built on the site of the present building. In 1894 it was kept open all the year round for the first time.

In 1903 the Home was destroyed by fire, but a house was hired in Wellesley Hills in which to carry on the work temporarily, and the shack system, which has proved so beneficial, was inaugurated. In 1905 the present building was completed with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and ten beds are usually kept vacant in order to be ready for emergencies. The cases treated range from those just recovering from acute attacks of illness or serious operations, to those suffering from long and exhausting diseases, whose cure depends upon months of careful nursing and attention. The number of patients treated during the year was 736, with a daily average of 59. The number of patients treated in 1910 was 902, with a daily average of 61.

The patients are sent to the Home from the Hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car, in charge of a doctor and trained nurse, and the barge from the Home meets them in Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused even when the parent or guardian is unable to pay.

The work at the Home has progressed well and steadily under the skilled management of Miss Davidson and her assistants, who in turn are under the superintendence of the Sisters of St. Margaret who run the Children's Hospital. To them the Managers owe a debt of gratitude which can never be repaid. Miss Rowen has carried on the kindergarten lessons regularly five times a week with great success, and the children could hardly get on without this occupation which all enjoy so much.

Twenty-five volunteer helpers meet with the Managers on Tuesday mornings during the winter to cut out the very large amount of clothing, bed and table linen, towels and bandages and surgical aprons needed in both Hospital and Home. In addition to this work, the Managers provide all the boots, sweaters and other ready-made articles for both Institutions, beside Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and Christmas trees.

The new Emergency Ward has proved an invaluable addition to the Home, making it possible to isolate all cases of mumps, chicken-pox, scarlet-fever, and diptheria at once, pending their removal to the City Hospital or to the patients' homes. Unavoidable purchases and repairs have been made from time to time, but the Managers have tried to see that careful economy is practiced in all departments.

Notwithstanding this the Treasurer reported a shortage of $6,800 with which to meet the current expenses at the end of the year.

On this account, one Appeal has already been published and another will be forthcoming. Gifts of Memorial Beds and annual subscriptions or donations are earnestly desired, and no amount of money is too small to be gratefully accepted.

The Managers cordially invite all who are interested in children to visit the Home on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, where they can see for themselves the good work which is being accomplished.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home have met with an irreparable loss in the death of their beloved and honored president, Mrs. Oliver W. Peabody, which occurred on the 31st of December, 1910.

Mrs. Peabody became a Manager in 1873, was elected Vice-President in 1878, and President in 1892, which position she held until the time of her death. A record of thirty-seven years of faithful, efficient and devoted service, and her memory will ever be held in loving veneration and esteem by her associates.

In February, Mrs. George H. Monks was elected President, and in March, Mrs. Frank Wells was elected Vice-President, but after a few months the latter, feeling unable to continue her active work, sent in her resignation, and Miss Mary B. Lothrop was elected Vice-President in her place. Mrs. Wells had been on the Board since 1885, and was a most intelligent and efficient Manager, as well as director and overseer of the work cut out during the winter. It was with the deepest regret that the Managers were obliged to accept her resignation as final.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME.

Extract from the By-Laws. — The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of The Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage the Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve, and nurse such children — patients from that Hospital — as may be sent to this Home.

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital submit to the public their Twenty-Eighth Annual Report.

This Institution, formerly known as The Ladies' Aid Association, was started in 1869, the year of the incorporation of The Children's Hospital. In 1874 the first Convalescent Home was opened in a small house hired for the purpose in Wellesley with accommodations for fifteen patients. The Association was incorporated under its present name in 1884, and in 1892 the first Home was built on the site of the present building. In 1894 it was kept open all the year round for the first time.

In 1903 the Home was destroyed by fire, but a house was hired in Wellesley Hills in which to carry on the work temporarily, and the shack system, which has proved so beneficial, was inaugurated. In 1905 the present building was completed with accommodations for ~~twenty~~ patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and ten beds are usually kept vacant in order to be ready for emergencies. The cases treated range from those just recovering from acute attacks of illness or serious operations, to those suffering from long and exhausting diseases, whose cure depends upon months of careful nursing and attention. The number of patients treated during the year was 648, with a daily average of 56. The number of patients treated in 1911 was 736, with a daily average of 59.

The patients are sent to the Home from the Hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car, in charge of a doctor and trained nurse, and the barge from the Home meets them in Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient but no case is refused when the parent or guardian is unable to pay.

The kindergarten lessons, five times a week under Miss Rowen's skilled teaching, have become a most important feature of the work, and at the annual Christmas tree, each manager is presented with an attractive gift fashioned by the hands of one of the children.

Contagious diseases broke out during four months of the year closing the Home temporarily to new patients, and in June Miss Davidson, the head nurse and housekeeper, had a serious illness which necessitated a six months leave of absence, during which time Miss Kissingen and Miss Sparrow successively were in charge, accomplishing their tasks faithfully and well, and maintaining the usual high standards of excellence and efficiency.

The doctors now devote much more of their time than formerly to the Home making on an average three visits a week.

Early in the year the President and Treasurer went over the bills for the monthly food supplies, and found that everything was ordered with economy and care. Various repairs and improvements, unavoidable in so large an institution, and large quantities of supplies purchased for the Hospital as well as the Home, have made the current expenses exceed the annual income, and again the Managers are confronted with the painful necessity of making an appeal for money. Gifts of memorial beds and annual subscriptions or donations are earnestly desired, and no amount of money is too small to be gratefully accepted.

The Sisters of St. Margaret have as usual been at the head of the Hospital and have exercised a general superintendence of the Home, and the Managers cannot sufficiently express to them their gratitude and appreciation.

A change of administration has taken place lately at the Hospital, as Sister Susannah, who has been Superintendent there for some years, has been made Mother Superior at the Convent, and Sister Caroline, recently Mother Superior, has returned to resume her former valued place at the Hospital.

Twenty volunteer helpers meet with the Managers on Tuesday mornings during the winter to cut out the very large amount of clothing, bed and table linen, towels and bandages and surgical aprons needed in both Hospital and Home. In addition to this work, the Managers provide all the boots, sweaters and other ready-made articles for both Institutions, beside Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and Christmas trees.

Visitors are always welcome at the Home. It is situated on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, and those who have generously contributed to its maintenance, may be interested to see how their money is being spent, and others who are merely interested in seeing the sufferings of little children soothed and alleviated, will not find the time wasted that they give to a visit at the Home.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

WELLESLEY HILLS

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their Twenty-Ninth Annual Report.

This Institution, formerly known as The Ladies' Aid Association, was started in 1869, the year of the incorporation of The Children's Hospital. In 1874 the first Convalescent Home was opened in a small house hired for the purpose in Wellesley with accommodations for fifteen patients. The Association was incorporated under its present name in 1884, and in 1892 the first Home was built on the site of the present building. In 1894 it was kept open all the year round for the first time.

In 1903 the Home was destroyed by fire, but a house was hired in Wellesley Hills in which to carry on the work temporarily and the shack system, which has proved so beneficial, was inaugurated. In 1905 the present building was completed with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and ten beds are usually kept vacant in order to be ready for emergencies. The cases treated range from those just recovering from acute attacks of illness or serious operations, to those suffering from long and exhausting diseases, whose cure depends upon months of careful nursing and attention. The number of patients treated during the year was 826, with a daily average of 59. The number of patients treated in 1912 was 648, with a daily average of 56.

The doctors now devote much more of their time than formerly to the Home, making on an average three visits a week.

The patients are sent to the Home from the Hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car, in charge of a doctor and trained nurse, and the barge from the Home meets them in Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused when the parent or guardian is unable to pay.

The work of the year shows no marked changes of any sort. After an enforced absence of several months, by reason of ill health, we are happy to say that Miss Davidson, the head nurse and housekeeper, has returned to her post completely recovered and fulfils her duties as always with devotion, intelligence and zeal. The Sisters of St. Margaret, who are in charge of the Hospital, exercise a general superintendence at the Home as well and for all that they give of their time and unwearied care, the Managers offer most grateful thanks.

An extra nurse-maid has been added to the working-staff which now consists of eight domestic servants, twelve ward-maids, three trained nurses and three men; and slowly but surely the expense of running the Institution mounts higher and higher, necessitating a constant drain on the principal.

The Home receives much more delicate children than formerly, who require more care and attention, and are an added expense, but the Managers have not the heart to refuse this assistance as Dr. Lovett states that since he has been sending children to the Home very soon after operations, they not only do better, but he has been able to care for twice as many at the Hospital.

Miss Rowen, the kindergarten teacher, was the victim of a serious accident in the spring, and pending her recovery, has been temporarily replaced by, first, Miss Grizzel, then Miss Leatherbee, who have done excellent work with the children.

A few cases of contagious illness broke out during the year, proving each time the value of the recently added isolated rooms.

An arrangement has been made with the Newton Cottage Hospital whereby their ambulance may be hired in case of emergency, such as that of a very sick child who needs to be conveyed immediately to the Hospital.

An earnest endeavor has been made to practise strict economy in all departments, but a certain amount of repairs, painting and replenishing of household supplies is absolutely necessary, causing the ordinary running expenses to be largely in excess of the income.

Donation Day was held in May with a result of $400, and October appeals for $10 donations were put in four newspapers with a result of $370. All this was very gratifying and the Managers appreciate the generosity of those who responded so kindly, but more is needed, and annual subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited.

Five hundred dollars endows a Memorial Bed, and behind each one of these is hung on the wall an engraved memorial tablet.

Another form of subscription is to the Permanent Fund, which a kind friend started with the sum of $1,000.

The Managers, with a corps of twenty-five volunteer helpers, meet at the Hospital on Tuesday mornings during the winter to cut out the very large amount of clothing, bed and table linen, towels, bandages, surgical aprons and jackets, needed in both Hospital and Home. In addition to this work the Convalescent Home provides all the boots, sweaters, blankets, and other ready-made articles for both institutions, besides Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners and Christmas trees.

Visitors are always welcome at the Home, which is situated on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, and the Managers hope that those who go there will be rewarded for their trouble by the sight of so many clean, happy, and in many cases rosy-cheeked, children who are the beneficiaries of the kindness and generosity of their unknown friends.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

Extract from the By-Laws.—The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of The Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage The Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve, and nurse such children—patients from that Hospital—as may be sent to this Home.

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

WELLESLEY HILLS

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their Thirtieth Annual Report, having been incorporated under their present name in 1884; but the Institution, which was originally known as The Ladies' Aid Association, began its actual existence forty-five years ago, the year of the Incorporation of The Children's Hospital, with Mrs. Robert C. Winthrop as president; Mrs. William Tucker, vice-president; Miss M. L. Robbins, treasurer, and Mrs. J. C. Hooker, secretary.

Five years later, in 1874, the first Home was opened in a small hired house, and I quote the following from an old report written by the Rev. Chandler Robbins.

"The Ladies' Aid Association has had an important part in promoting the success of the Hospital, and has added largely to its resources and accommodations. Besides neatly and tastefully furnishing the rooms, providing articles of clothing and use for the children, and many little comforts and means of amusement, and cheering and encouraging both the nurses and patients by personal visits, it has provided and fitted up a Convalescent Home, in the pleasant village of Wellesley, about fourteen miles from Boston. In a sanitary point of view, the value of this gift cannot be estimated too highly. During the past summer and autumn, fifteen patients at a time have been here provided for. The influence of the pure country air has been beneficial in every case, having a favorable effect even in cases beyond recovery. But even if its remedial power were less than it actually is, the delight which the children feel—many of whom have never been beyond the narrow and gloomy courts and alleys of the city—at finding themselves in the open air, in the broad and sweet fields, amidst flowers and birds, and the pleasant sights and sounds of the country, would be an ample return for all that the Home has done."

The first Home was built in 1892 on land presented by Mr. H. H. Hunnewell, with accommodations for forty children, but this building was destroyed by fire in 1903. During the next two years the patients were housed in temporary quarters, hired in Wellesley Hills, and the Shack System which has proved so beneficial was inaugurated. In 1905 the present building was completed on the site of the former one, with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and ten beds are usually kept vacant in order to be ready for emergencies. The cases treated range from those just recovering from acute attacks of illness or serious operations, to those suffering from long and exhausting diseases, whose care depends upon months of careful nursing and attention.

The doctors devote much more of their time now than they formerly did to the Home, making, between them, on an average three visits a week. The patients are sent to the Home from the Hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car, in charge of a doctor and trained nurse, and the barge from the Home meets them in Wellesley Hills and conveys them to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused if the parent or guardian is unable to pay.

The work at the Home has progressed favorably throughout the year, Miss Davidson being in charge and filling her double post of head nurse and housekeeper with the greatest intelligence and interest. Miss Rowan, the kindergarten teacher, after several years of faithful and successful instruction, has left, and her place as yet has not been satisfactorily filled. The kindergarten department is now considered a most important factor in the care of the patients; lessons are given five times a week and the beneficial results are very apparent.

The working staff of the Institution consists of eight domestic servants, twelve ward maids, three trained nurses and three men about the house and grounds, and slowly but surely the daily expenses mount higher and higher, necessitating a constant drain on the principal.

The managers wish to express their appreciation of the unwearied kindness and devotion of the Sisters of St. Margaret who, beside the great work which they accomplish at the Hospital, also exercise a general superintendence at the Home.

Cases of contagion have broken out several times at the Home, necessitating a period of quarantine which unfortunately lessens the number of children sent out from the Hospital. One of these cases occurring at Christmas time prevented the Managers from having their annual Christmas tree to their great disappointment; they sent all their customary gifts, however, of books, toys, candy, etc., which were distributed by Miss Davidson and her assistants. The large tree always hitherto given in the Hospital has had to be abandoned as there is no one large ward in the new building where the children can be assembled, but in each of the twelve small wards or shacks, a little tree was given on Christmas morning.

The new Hospital on Longwood Avenue was opened in the spring and the Convalescent Home Managers held their first meeting there in April, when they also enjoyed the privilege of being shown all over the fine buildings by Sister Caroline.

The Treasurer reports the receipt of generous gifts from various sources and Donation Day, which was held in May, netted a small amount of money, but owing to the stress of hard times, increased by the terrible war in Europe, and more especially because of the entire renovation of the drainage system, involving an expenditure of thousands of dollars, the treasury is in a very depleted condition. The work to be accomplished is so great and so necessary—more than ever necessary since the opening of a much larger Hospital, that the Managers must struggle on, although often in the face of great anxiety and discouragement, and they turn to the ever generous public for further donations and annual subscriptions—$500 endows a Memorial Bed, and another form of subscription is to the Permanent Fund, established a few years ago with the gift of $1,000.

The Managers, with a corps of volunteer helpers, meet at the Hospital on Tuesday mornings during the winter to cut out the very large amount of clothing, bed and table-linen and towels, needed in both Hospital and Home. Last winter 7,769 articles were cut out, and distributed to poor women to be made up. In addition to this work the Convalescent Home provides all the boots, stockings, sweaters, blankets and all other ready-made articles for both institutions.

Visitors are always welcome at the Home, which is situated on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, and it is a pleasant sight on a pleasant day to see the children assembled in the playroom, or more probably on the large piazzas to the South, where even the most hopeless and pitiful of them can bask a few hours in God's gifts of sunshine and fresh air.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

OF

WELLESLEY HILLS

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their Thirty-first Annual Report. The Institution which was originally known as The Ladies Aid Association began its existence forty-six years ago, the year of the Incorporation of The Children's Hospital, its object being to aid the new hospital by providing all its supplies of bandages, bed and table-linen and clothing, beside ready made articles such as boots, stockings, coats, blouses, hats, etc. The hospital managers and staff were most appreciative of this help, but it soon became evident that the Hospital work could not be successfully carried on without some place where the patients could be sent to recuperate before being returned to their homes which were, as a rule, in the poorer parts of the city and where only inadequate food and care could be the portion of the delicate children—the result being that many died of weakness or were soon brought back to the Hospital in a chronic state of sickness and suffering. So the ladies decided to hire a small house where the out-going patients could be received and cared for until well enough to go back to their own people. In this way in 1874 the first Convalescent Home was started in a small house in Wellesley Village. One of the Sisters of St. Margaret was appointed superintendent with one or two trained nurses and a small staff of domestic servants to help her. The first house was soon outgrown and a larger one was bought on Wellesley Avenue, with accommodations for fifteen patients, and in 1884 the Association was incorporated under its present name of The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital. Again ever-increasing demands made a larger house a necessity and in 1892 a large brick Home was built on a tract of land of about thirty acres on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, where the present building now is. All this time the Home, from motives of economy, was kept open only during the summer months, from May till October. In 1894, however, twenty years after the first Home was started, at the earnest solicitation of the doctors and surgeons, it was kept open all the year round, and has not been closed since.

In January, 1903, the first real misfortune occurred, as the building was burnt to the ground. The fire happened in the daytime and mercifully not one of the helpless children was injured, all being safely carried into the house occupied by the Superintendent of the grounds. The managers at once looked about for a suitable house for temporary purposes as it was decided to rebuild as soon as possible, and convenient quarters were procured and hired on Seaver Street, and while there, the Shack System which has since been so much used, was inaugurated. In the meantime the managers had been making heroic efforts to raise funds, and finally, in 1905, the present building was completed on the site of the former one with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and the patients are sent out from the Hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car in charge of a doctor and trained nurse. The barge from the Home meets this car in Wellesley Hills and conveys the inmates to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused if the parent or guardian declares himself unable to pay.

The work at the Home during the year has not differed materially from that of preceding ones. The number of patients treated was 530, with a daily average of 55, and these figures would be higher, had there not been several cases of scarlet fever at various times, necessitating periods of quarantine. On the other hand, a number of cases have been kept longer than usual, as the continued care, good food and fresh air are found to be strong factors in the establishing of permanent cures.

Miss Davidson continues at her post of head nurse and house keeper and fulfills her task most efficiently, ably seconded by her staff of helpers.

The new kindergarten teacher, Miss Curtis, accomplishes excellent results with her pupils who love the daily instructions, songs and games and benefit by them in many ways. The Sisters of St. Margaret exercise supervision in Hospital and Home and the managers cannot sufficiently thank them for their generous and devoted care. Unavoidable repairs, a new window over the laundry to introduce hose in case of fire, and endless supplies for both Institutions cause an ever-increasing drain on the income, and the managers feel obliged to appeal again to the kind and generous public for help in their very genuine need.

Donation Day was held in June, with few results, however, and annual subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited. Five hundred dollars endows a Memorial Bed and another form of subscription is to the Permanent Fund started with a donation of $1,000 and now raised to $2,300. During the winter the managers meet once a week regularly at the Hospital, with a corps of volunteer helpers, to cut out the very large amount of clothing, bed and table-linen and towels needed in Hospital and Home. Later in the year these articles are taken by benevolent societies and subscribers, and are given to poor sewing women to be made up.

Visitors are always welcome at the Home and those who are merely interested in the cause of humanity, as well as those who have helped to make this charity possible, will be glad when they see what it means to these unfortunate children to whom life would seem to have denied their share of human happiness.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

Extract from the By-Laws.—The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of The Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage The Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve, and nurse such children—patients from that Hospital—as may be sent to this Home.

OF

WELLESLEY HILLS

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their Thirty-second Annual Report. The Institution which was originally known as The Ladies' Aid Association began its existence forty-seven years ago, the year of the Incorporation of the Children's Hospital, its object being to aid the new hospital by providing all its supplies of bandages, bed and table-linen, and clothing, beside ready made articles, such as blankets, boots, coats, hats, etc. The hospital managers and staff were most appreciative of this help, but it soon became evident that their work could not be successfully carried on without some place where the patients could be sent to recuperate before being returned to their homes, which were, as a rule, in the poorer parts of the city, and where only inadequate food and care could be the portion of the delicate children—the result being that many died of weakness or were soon brought back to the hospital in a chronic state of sickness and suffering. The ladies, therefore, decided to hire a small house where the out-going patients could be received and cared for until well enough to go back to their own people.

In this way in 1874 the first Convalescent Home was started in a small house in Wellesley Village. One of the Sisters of St. Margaret was appointed superintendent with one or two trained nurses and a small staff of domestic servants to help her. The first house was soon outgrown and a larger one was bought on Wellesley Avenue, with accommodations for fifteen patients, and in 1884 the Association was incorporated under its present name of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital. Again ever-increasing demands made a larger house a necessity and in 1892 a large brick Home was built on a tract of land of about thirty acres on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, where the present building now is. All this time the Home, from motives of economy, was kept open only during the summer months, from May till October. In 1894, however, twenty years after the first Home was started, at the earnest solicitation of the doctors and surgeons, it was kept open all the year round, and has not been closed since.

In January, 1903, the first real misfortune occurred, as the building was burnt to the ground. The fire happened in the daytime and mercifully not one of the helpless children was injured, all being safely carried into the house occupied by the Superintendent of the grounds. The managers at once looked about for a suitable house for temporary purposes as it was decided to rebuild as soon as possible, and convenient quarters were procured and hired on Seaver Street, and while there, the Shack System which has since been so much used, was inaugurated. In the meantime the managers had been making heroic efforts to raise funds, and finally, in 1905, the present building was completed on the site of the former one with accommodations for ninety patients. The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and the patients are sent out from the hospital regularly once a week in a special electric car in charge of a doctor and trained nurse. The barge from the Home meets this car in Wellesley Hills and conveys the inmates to their destination. A nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused if the parent or guardian declares himself unable to pay.

The expenses of running the Home have materially increased during the year. It was found necessary to raise the wages in all departments, and the price of food has soared very high, as well as the price of gauze and other materials needed for the annual supplies in both institutions.

As usual the Managers, with many volunteer helpers, have met once a week during the winter to prepare the thousands of articles which are given out later to poor women or benevolent societies to be made up. The number of patients treated in 1916 was 518, with a daily average of 52—and these figures would be higher but for occasional cases of scarlet fever and mumps necessitating periods of quarantine.

Miss Davidson, who has been head nurse and housekeeper for several years, continues in charge and, in addition to her numerous duties, she has lately started classes for the training of nurse-maids which promise to accomplish very good results.

Miss Curtis has done excellent work in the kindergarten training, which is a source of much pleasure as well as benefit to the children.

The Sisters of St. Margaret, as always, exercise supervision in Hospital and Home, and to them the Managers extend grateful appreciation and thanks.

In June a change in the By-Laws was made, in order to create the office of Assistant Treasurer, as the task of managing the finances now that the Convalescent Home has become such a large and important institution, is considered too much of a responsibility for one individual to undertake unaided. One resignation took place and one new manager was elected; otherwise there have been no changes in the running of the Home.

A widespread appeal for money was made recently, in the hope of raising $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars) to add to the Permanent Fund, and thus far the result has been about $12,000 (twelve thousand dollars). Annual subscriptions are earnestly solicited, as many of the old subscribers have died, and the ranks have not been filled.

Five hundred dollars endows a Memorial Bed. Two have been received during the year, one of which was given in memory of the late Curtis Guild, governor of Massachusetts.

Two beautiful Christmas trees were given, one at the Home, the other in the big court-yard of the Hospital with quantities of toys, books and candy—and the joy of the children was good to see. The Managers cordially invite all who are interested to visit the Home at any time.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

Extract from the By-Laws.—The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of The Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage The Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve, and nurse such children—patients from that Hospital—as may be sent to this Home.

The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their Thirty-third Annual Report. The Institution which was originally known as the Ladies' Aid Association began its existence forty-eight years ago, the year of the incorporation of the Children's Hospital, its object being to aid the new hospital by providing all its supplies of bandages, bed and table-linen, and clothing, besides ready-made articles, such as blankets, boots, coats, hats, etc. The hospital managers and staff were most appreciative of this help, but it soon became evident that their work could not be successfully carried on without some place where the patients could be sent to recuperate before being returned to their homes, which were, as a rule, in the poorer parts of the city, and where only inadequate food and care could be the portion of the delicate children — the result being that many died of weakness or were soon brought back to the hospital in a chronic state of sickness and suffering. The ladies, therefore, decided to hire a small house where the out-going patients could be received and cared for until well enough to go back to their own people.

In this way in 1874 the first Convalescent Home was started in a small house in Wellesley Village. One of the Sisters of St. Margaret was appointed superintendent, with one or two trained nurses and a small staff of domestic servants to help her. The first house was soon outgrown and a larger one was bought on Wellesley Avenue, with accommodations for fifteen patients, and in 1884 the association was incorporated under its present name of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital. Again ever-increasing demands made a larger house a necessity, and in 1892 a large brick home was built on a tract of land of about thirty acres on Forest Street, Wellesley Hills, where the present building now is. All this time the home, from motives of economy, was kept open only during the summer months, from May until October. In 1894, however, twenty years after the first home was started, at the earnest solicitation of the doctors and surgeons, it was kept open all the year round, and has not been closed since.

In January, 1903, the first real misfortune occurred, as the building was burned to the ground. The fire happened in the daytime, and mercifully not one of the helpless children was injured, all being safely carried into the house occupied by the superintendent of the grounds. The managers at once looked about for a suitable house for temporary purposes as it was decided to rebuild as soon as possible, and convenient quarters were procured and hired on Seaver Street, and while there, the shack system which has since been so much used was inaugurated. In the meantime the managers had been making heroic efforts to raise funds, and finally, in 1905, the present building was completed on the site of the former one, with accommodations for ninety patients.

The beds are equally divided between the surgical and medical cases, and a nominal charge is made for the care of each patient, but no case is refused if the parent or guardian declares himself unable to pay.

In accordance with an amendment to the By-Laws, both a treasurer and an assistant-treasurer were elected at the annual meeting, but the treasurer, Mr. Roger Amory, having become a captain in the United States Aviation Corps, was obliged to resign, and Mr. Horatio G. Curtis was elected to fill his place. Our new manager was elected to fill a vacancy on the board, otherwise few changes have occurred in the running of the home. The services of another man on the place were found imperative, many repairs have been necessary, and a new asphalt floor in a wash-room, new shingles in roofs of shacks, and sixty new tubes in a boiler at a cost of $675 were other expensive necessities.

A steady rise in wages in all departments has added materially to the annual expenses, and it was only after long and careful deliberation that it was finally decided to build a garage and to substitute a Ford motor-ambulance and service-car in place of the rickety barn and the two old horses. Notwithstanding the expense incidental to these changes, it is believed that they are essential to the efficient handling and transporting of the patients, and the numberless daily errands inseparable from the running of a big institution, and although the ambulance has not yet been regularly installed, the garage has been built, and great hopes are entertained for the future.

Dentistry has been added to the surgical and medical treatment of the children, with important results.

Miss Davidson continues at her post of head nurse and housekeeper, and her zeal and interest are unflagging. The new kindergarten teacher is doing excellent work.

In June, the managers notified the directors of the Children's Hospital that they would be unable in the future to provide supplies for the Nurses' Home, but that they would continue as hitherto to provide all the hospital supplies.

The managers, with many volunteer helpers, meet once a week during the winter to cut out and make ready the thousands of articles which are given out annually in February to charitable institutions and to private individuals, through whom they are distributed to poor women to be made up for hospital and home use.

An important change has taken place in the management of the Children's Hospital, as the Sisters of St. Margaret who have always been at its head, exercising also a general supervision of the Convalescent Home, have resigned, and Miss Ida C. Smith, for many years in charge of the Out-Patient Department, and later assistant superintendent, has become superintendent. It was voted that the secretary write to Sister Caroline and express the deep sense of regret with which the managers received the news of the resignation of the Sisters of St. Margaret from the superintendence of hospital and home, also expressing the profound gratitude of the managers and their appreciation of the long years of unremitting care and devotion given so freely and without thought of reward.

Five hundred dollars endows a Memorial Bed, and donations to the Permanent Fund and annual subscriptions are earnestly solicited.

The need of help has never been greater and the misery which follows in the wake of war is quick to reach the innocent. Let us not forget those in our midst at the same time that we maintain our effort to alleviate the suffering of the helpless in foreign lands.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

BOSTON

FOR THE YEAR

1 9 1 8

The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their Thirty-fourth Annual Report. It has been a hard year for the Home. The unprecedented cold weather of last winter and the scarcity and high cost of fuel necessitated shutting off the sleeping-shacks from the heating plant, and concentrating the children in the wards, thereby reducing the number of patients from a maximum of 80 to 45. Wages in all departments have risen steadily month by month, as well as the cost of everything. Miss Davidson resigned because of ill-health, after fourteen years of faithful service which the Managers gratefully appreciate. Her successor, Miss Ober, started in with intense ardor, and was just getting thoroughly acquainted with her new duties, when an unfortunate accident to her mother obliged her to resign, and the care of the Home devolved upon Miss Guillod, the second nurse, who with Miss Bixby, an able assistant, and Mrs. Hurtle the house-keeper, is now in charge, and has everything in excellent running order. Miss Ida C. Smith, Superintendent at the Hospital, has been more than kind in supervising the Home, and in the changes that have taken place it would have been very difficult to get on without her help and advice.

There have been three Kindergarten teachers during the year, — Miss Dodsworth, Miss Kingman, who consented to work at the Home during her summer vacation, and Miss Dyke, who is now in charge.

A Ford automobile ambulance and service-car have been installed, and are proving their usefulness; the old electric car service having been done away with, and the children are now transported by our own people to and from the Home.

There have been cases of diphtheria, German measles, scarlet fever, and whooping-cough, and lately the influenza epidemic has broken out, necessitating quarantine, and preventing the Managers from having their usual Christmas Tree with the children.

The Chief of the Wellesley Fire Department visited the Home and found, according to new regulations, that several precautions against danger from fire were lacking, and a large sum was expended in meeting these requirements.

Quantities of eggs were bought when plentiful and comparatively cheap, and were put in cold storage; the vegetable garden has yielded good crops; repairs have been made only when absolutely necessary, and strict economy in all departments is the watch-word.

Mr. Whicher, experienced buyer for the Hospital, and Mrs. F. W. Thayer for the Home, purchase all the supplies which have been provided by the Convalescent Home for many years, for both Institutions.

The Managers meet once a week with Volunteer Helpers and cut out thousands of garments and household articles, which are given later to poor sewing women to be made up for use in Hospital and Home.

There is one vacancy to be filled in the Board of Managers.

Many generous friends and patrons have died during the year, and others have found it necessary to discontinue their subscriptions, but now that the great war is over, we are full of hope that Peace and Plenty will return, and make it possible to offer to these helpless children their opportunity to carry on.

MARY B. HUNNEWELL,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

BOSTON

FOR THE YEAR

1 9 1 9

The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital, present to the public their thirty-fifth annual report.

There have been important changes in the management during the year as Mr. and Mrs. Horatio G. Curtis have resigned as Treasurer and Assistant-Treasurer respectively, and Mr. S. H. Hooper and Mrs. I. McD. Garfield have been elected to fill those positions. Mrs. Curtis who has served first as manager, then as treasurer and finally as assistant-treasurer for many years will continue on the Board, and three other vacancies have been filled by new managers.

The services of Miss Guillod, the head-nurse, have been of such value as to deserve special commendation. During a severe siege of influenza in which children, nurses and maids were alike affected, she rose to the emergency and met it with great efficiency and courage. She has succeeded in raising $150 on her own initiative for dental equipment, the need of which was very apparent.

Mrs. Hurtle, the housekeeper, is capable and conscientious and does her best to keep down the bills. Wages have steadily increased in all departments and expensive repairs have had to be made. Leaking roofs, defective and insufficient plumbing, installing a mangle in order to reduce the number of laundresses, and other details too numerous to mention have raised the current expenses to such a pitch, that had it not been for generous bequests it might have been necessary to close the Home during the cold weather, a possibility which the managers cannot bear to contemplate.

A stove was set up in the Play Room Shack (necessitating a new brick chimney) with the approval of the Insurance Co., to do away with lighting the furnace fires in late spring and early autumn, thereby saving tons of coal.

The Managers meet once a week during the winter with Volunteer Helpers and cut out thousands of garments and household articles for use in Hospital and Home, these garments and articles being given later to be finished by poor sewing women who are grateful for the work.

Generous gifts including a new automobile service-car and a sun-room have been made, the latter equipped with a powerful lens which is operated scientifically for tubercular cases with excellent results. The children don special little cotton slips christened "next-to-natures" by the nurses for their treatments and carry parasols (another gift) to shield their eyes.

On Washington's Birthday there was a patriotic celebration. The housekeeper made red, white and blue crêpe paper caps for everybody and the procession marched into the dining-room with drums beating and flags flying, and sang the National Anthem before seating themselves to a repast of ice-cream and cakes decorated with little paper flags.

Interested neighbors in Wellesley Hills have given the children frequent automobile rides, and young girls from Wellesley College and members of different churches have visited and generously helped to entertain the patients.

The managers gave their customary Christmas Tree with quantities of candy and toys, the children sang carols and it was a joyous occasion.

The Rev. Mr. Dean of St. Andrew's Church, Wellesley, has held several services in the little chapel at the Home which were a great pleasure to the nurses and other grown-up members of the household.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

To Miss Ida C. Smith of the Children's Hospital, the managers extend grateful thanks for her unfailing interest and help at the Home.

In these days of 'drives" to obtain funds for every kind of charity, the idea of adopting some such method for raising the much needed help, naturally occurred to the managers. They decided however to bide their time, and the most optimistic hope that friends of little children will remember those whose helplessness is only equalled by their suffering, and be so generous with their gifts that the dreaded appeal need not be made. A visit to the Home is a sermon without words!

The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital, present to the public their thirty-sixth annual report.

Previous to its incorporation in 1884 the Convalescent Home began its existence as the Ladies' Aid Association, its object being to help the new Children's Hospital by providing all the bandages, bed and table linen and clothing, beside ready-made articles such as blankets, boots, coats, hats, etc.

From these small beginnings arose greater needs, chief among them being that of a Home in the country where children might be sent after illness or operation to rest and recuperate.

The present Home is the fourth to be consecrated to this work and was built to accommodate 90 patients, but it is not run to its full capacity as that would involve enlarging the staff and increasing expenses to a prohibitive degree.

Owing to increasing demands, higher wages and prices and the inevitable repairs attendant on running such a large institution, the managers have felt obliged to somewhat reduce their activities and no longer provide the Hospital with plaster, gauze, household linen and ready-made articles. They do, however, continue to provide all the material for clothing and cut out all the garments needed in both Hospital and Home, meeting for that purpose every week during the winter, with a corps of volunteer helpers whose generous and efficient assistance is most deeply appreciated. These garments are given out later to churches, societies and benevolent individuals who distribute them to poor sewing women to be made up. The managers are very grateful for their help and co-operation.

The usual outbreaks of contagious diseases, such as mumps, measles, whooping-cough, scarlet fever and diphtheria, have occurred from time to time, involving a state of quarantine, during which no new patients are admitted.

Miss Guillod, the head nurse, has been admirable in emergencies as well as normal times, and with her trained and skillful helpers, including the housekeeper, everything has been kept up to a high standard of excellence in all departments. A new kindergarten teacher, Miss Botsford, has been engaged and her daily instructions are a great benefit as well as pleasure to the children.

The Sun-Room, fitted last year with a lens for tuberculous joint treatments, has been so successful that it has been enlarged, because not only the parts affected, but the general physical condition of the patients have been wonderfully improved.

The Hospital Welfare Committee, formed to give publicity to the co-operative work accomplished by both institutions, has labored unceasingly and with great results, giving lectures, tableaux, "movies" and weekly teas at the hospital, and has endeavored to enlist the interest not only of groups of adults throughout the community, but of children as well. By way of expressing their appreciation and gratitude the Managers gave a reception in honor of this committee at the Home; the doors were thrown open from attic to cellar and visitors were most complimentary and enthusiastic over all that they saw.

Neighbors from Wellesley Hills, members of church societies, the Wellesley Red Cross and young girls from school and college have been generous and attentive and the managers wish that it were possible to express their appreciation of so much kindness. They also extend grateful thanks to Miss Ida C. Smith, superintendent of the Children's Hospital, for her unfailing interest and help.

During the year some generous donations and legacies have been received, but subscriptions have greatly diminished, and the Home is in sad need of funds.

Annual subscriptions are especially solicited. The public is cordially invited to visit the Home at any time, where the mute appeal of suffering children will say more than any spoken word.

The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital submit to the public their thirty-seventh annual report.

Previous to its incorporation in 1884, the Convalescent Home was known as the Ladies' Aid Association, and came into existence in 1869 in order to provide supplies for the new Children's Hospital.

The "Aid" has been continued ever since and has increased to very large proportions. The present Home was built to accommodate ninety patients, but the full quota has never been received as the care of so many would involve enlarging the staff and increasing the expense to a prohibitive degree.

Cases of chicken pox, measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever and nasal diphtheria have appeared from time to time causing intervals of quarantine during which the doors are closed.

The number of patients treated in one fiscal year was 463, of whom 119 paid in full, 43 paid in part and 301 paid nothing. The patients remain at the Home any time from 2 weeks to 6 months and longer, as the case demands.

In order to run so large an institution it is necessary to employ 25 individuals, including nurses, house-keeper, ward-maids, house-maids, engineer and outside men.

The playground has been equipped with swings, saws, sand-boxes and a summer-house. There are piazzas for tuberculous patients and a new model am lance capable of carrying 20 children. The superint dent of the grounds, Mr. Bird, has been very active raising funds for enlarging the garage and thanks due to him as well as to those whose generosity has made the present commodious and convenient building possible.

A dental equipment has been installed and kindergarten teaching has for many years been an important part of the treatment. At present this work is being undertaken by amateurs, young girls who have volunteered their services. The results thus far are excellent and the managers greatly appreciate the kindness of the teachers.

Miss Guillod, the head nurse, with able assistants runs the Home most admirably. Miss Smith, superintendent of the Hospital, is ever ready with practical help and encouragement. A corps of volunteer workers meets once a week during the winter at the Hospital to help the managers with the very large amount of household linen and clothing to be cut out, and to all these individually and collectively appreciation and thanks are extended.

A committee of ladies from various church societies, the Woman's Club of Wellesley Hills, members of the Red Cross, young girls from school and college, Sunday-School children and others have organized to help the Home and have done splendid work, not only in giving money, but have made clothing, taught the children, provided games and entertainments, ice-cream for holidays, and numerous drives in automobiles. To all these kind and generous people the managers feel deeply grateful.

The Hospital doctors have wanted for some time to send serious heart cases to the Home, believing that country air and sunshine would be of great benefit to them. Heretofore the managers have hesitated to receive them because of the extra care and expense involved, but it has been decided to try the experiment as long as there is a possibility of helping these children.

The Home has co-operated with the Hospital in endeavoring to raise an Endowment Fund and receives a certain percentage of the amount raised per annum.

Thanks are extended to all members of the Hospital Welfare Committee and the "C. H. Clubs" who have generously included the Home in their appeals.

There have been two resignations during the year and the position of Honorary Vice-President was offered to one of those resigning who has been on the Board for many years as Manager, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer.

During the absence of the Treasurer, Mr. S. H. Hooper, in Europe for a few months, Mr. Nelson S. Bartlett, Jr., very kindly took his place as Treasurer.

A great many repairs have been necessary: new cedar posts and wiring for the shacks, new shingles, steps, fencing and fresh paint, but unfortunately subscriptions and donations do not keep pace with the above expenses and the old appeal for money must be renewed for without it the work cannot carry on.

Annual subscriptions are earnestly solicited. Five hundred dollars endows a Memorial Bed over which a tablet is placed with name inscribed. The wards have several already, but there is room for many more.

Visitors to the Home are always welcomed, not only by those in charge, but by the children, whose responsiveness to every little attention and whose patient and cheerful endurance of suffering are a constant wonder and lesson to us all.

Subscriptions for 1921

Extracts from the By-Laws.—The name of this Corporation shall be "The Convalescent Home." Its objects are to aid in the carrying on of the Children's Hospital in Boston, as well as to carry on and manage the Children's Convalescent Home at Wellesley Hills, and to care for, relieve and nurse such children—patients from that Hospital—as may be sent to this Home.

Form of Bequest

I give, devise, and bequeath to The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital, in the City of Boston, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which was incorporated in the year 1884, the sum of

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

BOSTON

1922

The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their thirty-eighth report.

The number of the children in the Home for the year wa 391, of whom 70 paid in full, 68 paid in part, and 253 received free care. The patients remain at the Home any time from two weeks to six months and even longer, as the case demands.

The one distressing and important fact that stands out this year is that we have had 46 cases of contagion, there having been scarlet fever, whooping cough and measles all recurring from time to time. The problem of contagion has always been acute, but it has so handicapped the work of the Home this past year that the Managers as well as the Medical Staff of the Hospital feel that some radical changes must be made. The ideal solution would be a small separate building where the children coming from the Hospital could be kept for at least two weeks' quarantine before entering the wards with all the other children. However, with our finances in such a depleted condition the thought of another building cannot be contemplated, unless it would appeal to some one or some group of people to give it as a memorial. We have made three separate experiments in trying to adapt various rooms for quarantine purposes, and finally even used the main girls' ward, but all proved failures. Ideal as the building of the Home is for sun and air it does not lend itself to quarantine quarters. We feel that we not only need the advice but also the financial help of the Hospital to solve this problem if our work is to be of continued value to it.

At a special meeting in the spring it was decided to sell a portion of the land belonging to the Home to the Babson Park Company. The Home owns about 31 acres, and the proposition was to sell 2.8 acres to the Babson Park Company, whose property joins that of the Home. Mr. Babson has plans for building dormitories for students, lecture halls, etc., thus making a community center. Part of the plan includes a building to contain a post office. The United States government has given Mr. Babson permission for this post office, provided it is on a main road. As none of his property met this requirement he was anxious to obtain 200 feet of our property on Forest Street, with a strip of woodland running back to his land. The sale was made for $1,900.

Miss Guillod continues at her post of head nurse with untiring zeal, and her interest and loyalty are duly appreciated. Miss Hubbard has done splendid work, and we hope for equal satisfaction in the two new members of the staff.

The dentistry work has progressed with great success, and Dr. Dinney has treated 174 children.

The problem of where to send children with heart disease for a long period of convalescence has been keenly felt in this community, and it is only in the last few years that the Home attempted to take these cases. We feel that we have done good work with them this past year, and have thus added to our usefulness.

Each year our sun room proves itself of more and more value in its treatment of various tubercular troubles. It was open from April to November, and it was with keen regret that we closed it then on account of not having the means to heat it. This is a work in which we were pioneers in this country, and the sun plus the scientifically designed lens have shown excellent results in helping to make cures that previously seemed hopeless.

The Home receives no financial aid from the Hospital; in fact, the Home supplies the Hospital with all the bedding, towels and garments used by the children. This large burden of expense (amounting this year to $3,422.29) that is carried by the Managers of the Home is not always understood by the public. It has been a natural outcome of the Ladies' Aid Association which was formed in 1869, and when this Association was incorporated into The Convalescent Home the aid given the Hospital was continued. The Managers with many helpers meet every Tuesday morning at the Nurses' Home of The Children's Hospital, 640 Huntington Avenue, and cut out and tie up bundles of clothing which are later given to various societies and poor women to be sewed. This work is always done a year in advance of the needs of the Hospital and Home, and with Miss Smith's and Miss Guillod's conscientious lists of requirements and Mrs. Thayer's able buying the supply closets are kept most efficiently full. We need many more workers at these cutting out meetings, and donations of money for the purchase of supplies would be most acceptable.

Another event of the year was the resignation as secretary of Mrs. Henry S. Hunnewell, who has served in that capacity for nineteen years, maintaining a standard of courtesy and efficiency that will be difficult to follow. It is a pleasure to report that she will remain on the Board as a Manager.

We are very grateful to the Welfare Committee for their constant interest in the Home, and also for their generous financial help.

There have been two new memorial beds given this year, one by Mrs. T. L. Winthrop and one by a club, the Mimes and Masques, of the Pine Manor School.

Five hundred dollars endows a memorial bed, and donations to the permanent fund and annual subscriptions are most earnestly desired.

LEONORE C. AMORY,
Secretary.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME

(WELLESLEY HILLS)

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

BOSTON

FOR THE YEAR

1923

The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

THE Managers of The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their thirty-ninth annual report.

The number of children treated during the year was 414, of whom 58 paid in full, 59 paid in part, and 297 received free care. Every known precaution has been taken to eliminate the breaking out of contagious diseases, but with the Home's limited capacity for quarantine, a certain amount of contagion is unavoidable. The ideal solution would be a separate building where children coming from the Hospital could be isolated before entering the wards with other patients, but the present financial standing of the Home is very poor and far from entertaining any such project, the problem of meeting running expenses with the increasing demands of modern surgery and hygiene is a very difficult one.

The Home is under the charge of the Medical Staff of the Hospital, and Dr. Bowers of Newton Highlands has kindly consented to visit every week and to answer emergency calls.

Miss Guillod continues at her post of head nurse, and with able assistants maintains a high order of excellence at the Home. The new kindergarten teacher is accomplishing good results; the sun parlor, supplemented by an Alpine lamp, is helping tuberculous joints; and a valuable gift of a complete dental equipment has greatly facilitated the work of that department, — 121 cases having been treated during the year. A sterilizer for washing dishes and an electric clothes-washer have been installed.

Two resignations of Managers — Mrs. Cutler and Mrs. Mixter — have been received with deep regret. Each week during the winter the Managers, with a valuable corps of helpers, meet at the Nurses' Home, under the skilled direction of Mrs.

F. W. Thayer, and cut out hundreds of sheets, towels and articles of clothing for both Hospital and Home; 8,710 articles have been distributed to be made up by poor women and benevolent sewing societies.

The Convalescent Home and the Infants' Hospital have associated themselves with the Household Nursing Association, with the object of training young girls for domestic nursemaids. Each girl spends seven months at the Home, and it is hoped that the training will be of mutual benefit, but as the scheme is still in the experimental stage no definite report can be given.

The Home has no financial connection with the Hospital, and the Managers are grateful to the Hospital Welfare Committee for its continued interest and generous help.

Memorial tablets have been given and other legacies and donations have been received, but there is a great need of more annual subscribers and a more widespread knowledge of the work, which is certainly deserving of all the help that the friends of little children can bestow.

THE Managers of The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital present to the public their fortieth annual report.

This has been a very active and encouraging year, the Home having treated 425 children, of whom 38 paid in full, 143 paid in part and 244 received free care. We have no definite rules as to the length of time a child stays at the Home, the usual time is from three weeks to three months, but many individual cases remain for six months or longer. As we are purely a Convalescent Home it is a question whether it is a wise policy to care for so many long cases which prevent our admitting a larger number of patients who would be greatly benefited by a comparatively short stay at the Home. We should not let ourselves become clogged with cases which are practically chronic. Perhaps the following specific case will more clearly illustrate this point. A case of osteomyelitis was operated on at The Children's Hospital, the child had to remain in bed, feeling well, eating well and only requiring daily dressings for six weeks until the second and final operation could take place. All this six weeks should have been spent at the Convalescent Home in the country which would have benefited the child but there was no bed available at the Home. Furthermore if this child could have been cared for at the Home it would have freed a bed at the Hospital and during those six weeks four or five acute cases could have been admitted, cured and sent home. This is only one fairly typical case and there are many more like it. Our proportion among the services averages about 35 or 40 Orthopedic, 25 Medical and about 12 Surgical cases. Splendid cures are made with the Medical and Surgical cases and many Orthopedic, but those that are chronic we are forced to pass on to other institutions such as the Peabody Home, the Tuberculosis Home at Mattapan, the Massachusetts State Hospital at Canton, or into private homes that have been well investigated by the Children's Aid or the Children's Mission to Children, the latter being a most splendid organization which has for years placed out most successfully many of our destitute cripples, and we owe them a debt of gratitude for their being able to continue the work we had begun.

Another of our problems has always been that of contagion and we have in recent years tried to have the most modern point of view in regard to it. This year our work seems to have borne fruit for we have had fewer infectious diseases than ever before. Dr. Blackfan has made rigid rules and insists on the Schick test, a culture of the throat and a careful examination of the child the morning that it is brought from the Hospital to the Home.

The high efficiency of our work could not be maintained were it not for the untiring devotion and ability of Miss Guillod who continues as head nurse, and it redounds to her credit that during her illness of seven weeks her well trained assistants carried on the work of the Home in a most satisfactory and willing manner.

After twenty-six years of faithful service our Superintendent, John T. Bird has resigned. He came in very close contact with the children for it was he that for years drove them in the ambulance from the Hospital to the Home, and many are the children that his warm heart cheered and comforted on that long ride. He took intense interest in the children and they in turn showed their affection for him.

This year the kindergarten work has been most successfully taught by Miss Chamberlain. She not only keeps the children most happily occupied, but has also added to their health by exercises planned by the doctors, but so interpreted by her that the children think they are play. Her mother, Mrs. Chamberlain, contributed her time two days a week for six months teaching the older children. Her work was so well done that these children were able to go into their correct grades when they returned to their schools this fall.

THE MANAGER'S REPORT

Each week during the winter the Managers, with a valuable corps of helpers meet at the Nurses' Home under the skilled direction of Mrs. Thayer and cut out about 10,000 articles used by the children at both the Hospital and the Home.

We are deeply grateful for the four new memorial beds given in memory of

Raymond Roswell Robinson
Henry Hunnewell Bartlett
Virginia Pearce
Kathleen Desmond Callan

As the Home receives no financial support from the Hospital we are in urgent need of more annual subscribers. Those wishing to know of definite needs should visit the Home and a short talk with Miss Guillod shows the joy the following things would bring to the children. Favors for all the different fete days, such as Valentine's Day, Washington's Birthday, Easter, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, etc., etc. Gifts of fruit, vegetables, ice cream, candy, high chairs, baby carriages, sweaters, sneakers, shoes and last but not least, toys.

The greatest encouragement we have received in many years is the recent offer of a new building to be used as a Solarium given by Miss Mary Weld in memory of her father, Dr. Charles Goddard Weld. This gift makes it possible for the Home to take a great step forward in the curing of disease. At least one-third of the children coming to us need the treatment of a Solarium as it proves most beneficial to diseased bones, ulcers of the skin, rickets, tuberculosis, osteomyelitis, etc. It is impossible for the Board of Managers to adequately express their gratitude to Miss Weld, for beyond such feeling is the inspiration that this Memorial gives to us all to carry on our part of the work and it enables us to go into the new year with high hopes and courageous hearts.

The Convalescent Home, Wellesley Hills

The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

Massachusetts

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their forty-first annual report.

Our number of patients has not been as large as previous years owing to the fact that a section of the Home has had to be given up while the new Solarium in memory of Dr. Charles Goddard Weld is being built. We hope that this Solarium, which is the gift of Miss Mary Weld will be ready for use in the early Spring and it is impossible to over-estimate the good that we feel sure will be accomplished when we have this new up-to-date wing added to our buildings.

We have cared for 366 children this past year; only 39 paid full board, 119 paid in part, and 208 received absolutely free care. One hundred and fifty children were treated by our dentist, Dr. R. R. Davenport, who has done excellent work, and he also seems to be able to make the children feel the importance of proper care of their teeth.

Miss Chamberlain's recreation work last summer was delightfully done. She took the children on picnics on our own grounds and also over to the Babson Bird Sanctuary, thus giving them quite an idea of bird, tree, and outdoor life. We hope to surely continue this work another summer.

For a number of years we have realized that we should do something about the education of our children who are of school age, and this year we have secured a teacher who has had experience with delicate children. She is doing splendid work and we find the children think it a great treat to go into the school room. So far we have admitted only those children, 24 in number, who are staying over a long period of time and no malnutrition child is allowed to go to the classes until he or she has begun to gain. This makes a real incentive for them to try to eat more and to take their rests quietly. We hope that this schooling will enable many of them to keep their places in their grades when they return to their own schools.

Another form of new work that we have undertaken is that of having a physiotherapy worker in order to continue treatment begun at the Children's Hospital. This treatment, which consists of baking, massage, and muscle training, is given to children suffering from all types of paralysis and congenital dislocated hips. Our Alpine lamp work continues to benefit a large number of the children especially those who were under sun treatment during the summer months and also all rickets cases.

It has long been an ideal of the Managers and the Medical Staff of the Children's Hospital to have a resident doctor at the Home, but not until this year did it seem feasible. On October first Dr. Charles F. McKahnn was appointed by the Staff and entered upon his duties.

The care of convalescent children is not so much a medical as a home and nursing problem and our success is largely due to Miss Guillod's personality and executive ability. Her influence makes the Convalescent Home most attractive and not too institutional in character. Under her leadership the same corps of workers continue and they are all doing faithful and satisfactory work.

We are affiliated with the Household Nursing Association, the Infants' Hospital and The Children's Community Centre at New Haven, Conn., in training nursery maids. The work is still in the experimental stage but we are hopeful of its future success not only for the institutions but also for the homes in which these girls will later work.

Our modern efforts in preventing contagion seem to be bearing fruit for our problems in that line have been greatly lessened.

We have had many gifts during the year and I want to mention three which have been equally useful and pleasure-giving though in totally different ways: A junglegym which is a joyous and strengthening aid to the children, a large electric ice-cream freezer which enables everyone in the Home to have ice cream frequently with no more trouble or expense than any other dessert, and the third gift is an electric knife for cutting out garments. This knife will make easier the work of the Managers who meet every Tuesday at the Nurses' Home of the Children's Hospital, 640 Huntington Avenue and cut out and tie up bundles of clothing which are later given to various societies to be sewed. The Managers supply both the Hospital and Home with all the bedding, towels, and garments used by the children. This is a large burden of expense and one which makes us need more friends to help us meet.

It is estimated that the average community requires one convalescent bed to every ten acute hospital beds and that five per cent of its out-patient department cases need country institutional care. The acute hospital is not equipped to care for convalescent patients nor is it the best place for them to recover. Many children must be removed from unfavorable home surroundings before they can recuperate, and the most economical and beneficial care is given by a country convalescent home. The community that is not conscious of the necessity of a convalescent home for little children is falling short of its duty.

The Home receives no financial aid from the Hospital, and need we ask whether we do not also do our part in bettering the health of the community? We are in urgent need of more annual subscribers and surely there must be many people who would gladly help these little ones through their tiresome and often painful weeks of convalescence.

The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital

THE Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their forty-second annual report.

We have taken care of 370 children this year, only 40 children paid full board, 91 paid something and 239 received absolutely free care.

The new Solarium built in memory of Dr. Charles Goddard Weld and the gift of his daughter, Miss Mary Weld, was opened for the treatment of children on August 28th. Since that date 65 children have been treated and there are now 26 children in the Solarium. This much needed and well-equipped building will add tremendously to the efficiency of our work as most doctors feel that the world is only just beginning to understand the value of the direct rays of the sun as a healing power. With this new building we have found it necessary to add another trained nurse to our staff, and also to have a physiotherapist for half time every day. She continues the treatments begun at the Hospital consisting of muscle training, massage and baking. During the year 70 of our children needed this work and 900 treatments have been given.

This was our first year to have a resident doctor, and it has proved a most successful experiment making the connection between the Hospital and Home more complete. We regret the resignation of Dr. Charles McKhann as his work has been very satisfactory. His place has been taken by Dr. Theodore Wilder.

We are especially grateful for the interest Wellesley people and Wellesley organizations have taken in the Home this year. The Wellesley Hills Congregational Church, the Wellesley Hills Unitarian Church, the Pine Manor School, the Wellesley Post of the American Legion, the Junior Red Cross and many individuals have given us either handsome gifts or lavishly of their time. Miss Curtis of Wellesley Hills has been a volunteer worker three days every week under our school teacher, Mrs. Swiger, and it is due to their untiring zeal and sympathetic patience that the school room is proving such a success.

No report of the Convalescent Home would be complete without the warmest praise being given to our Superintendent, Miss Guillod. She has been with us seven years, and her magnificent work, her influence and her courage are an example to all from the Managers to the smallest child in the Institution. We also extend our thanks to the able corps of assistants who continue to do most faithful work under Miss Guillod.

The problem of convalescence is an important though neglected phase of medical interest. The total result of this lack of interest is that the care of convalescent patients has for the most part been left to drift by itself without intensive medical supervision or support by the public, in consequence this is the only branch of medicine which has made almost no progress in the last fifty years. The subject well deserves a thoughtful consideration from many angles, the two most important being first in regard to the health of the community and second in the relieving of pressure on the hospitals. To the community convalescence perhaps suggests only a vague conception of recovery from illness, but a half cured child returned to a poorly equipped home means one that will shortly be back again in the hospital. That same child sent to a Convalescent Home for a few weeks means a permanent return to normal health. Furthermore, the present cost of caring for a convalescent patient in a convalescent home is approximately one-third of what it costs in a hospital. It is estimated that the average patient, who has previously been sufficiently ill to require the average stay of about eighteen days in an acute hospital, has also been sufficiently ill to require an additional average period of three weeks of intelligent care during convalescence, and that every community should provide at least one convalescent bed to every ten acute hospital beds. It is also an interesting fact that the benefit which children derive from proper and adequate convalescent care is often more marked than in the case of adults.

We have no time limit as to the length of stay of our patients. The time necessary for proper convalescence varies with the nature and extent of the illness as well as with the recuperative powers of the individual. A month is considered about our minimum for the average child, though of course the orthopedic cases as a rule remain much longer. We try to impress upon our staff of workers that the gain in weight and improvement of the children under their care, and not the number cared for in a year, is the ultimate end and the criterion by which the efficiency of the Home is to be judged.

The Home receives no financial aid from the Hospital even though our work is so interwoven, and we appeal to the public for money to carry on this convalescent care of little children.

Grateful acknowledgment is extended to all those who have given in the past and it is earnestly hoped that they, and many others, will feel inclined to contribute to this work of helping suffering children through their weeks of convalescence.

The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital

Wellesley Hills

Massachusetts

The Managers of the Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital present to the public their forty-third annual report.

This has been a very successful and satisfactory year for the Home, as we feel that the efficiency of the Home has been greater than in past years. One outstanding fact is that we have taken care of 120 more children than in any previous year. We have had 490 children this year—85 paid the board that we ask of $7 a week, 121 paid from $5 to $1 a week, and 284 received absolutely free care. The seven dollars a week does not really cover the expenses of a child but, judging by the homes from which the children come, we have always felt that it was as much as we could ask. The cost of a child per day is about $3.33.

We have only had 29 cases of contagion during the entire year, which, considering the number of children, is a good record, and proves that our preventive work shows results. The cases were 10 of whooping cough, 2 of mumps, 5 of chicken pox, and 12 of diphtheria. There has been no contagion of any kind since last June.

We have had 104 children who came to us after infantile paralysis. For this work we have a physiotherapist who comes to the Home for five days a week, and though this has added to our expenses we feel that it is money well spent.

We have a dentist who comes to the Home every other week, and who has worked on 153 children during the year. His work could be more efficient if we had the money to have a dental hygienist once a week to clean the teeth and prepare the mouths of the children for him.

Another experiment of the last few years that has proved a great success is our schoolroom. We now have a fairly well equipped schoolroom with one paid teacher and one volunteer worker. The average has been about sixteen children a day well enough to receive benefit from the school. It is a great help to have these children who are able to be about occupied and interested, and it keeps them away from the more frail children. Incidentally, their parents are very much pleased to have them not lose so much of their school year as would be the case if we did not attempt this work.

One of our problems for the coming year is that it is absolutely necessary to re-equip our two main wards with new beds. The old beds have been in use for twenty-five years, and they are in such poor condition that it is really not safe for us to use them any longer. This will cost about five hundred dollars for each ward, and we are in the hopes that someone or some organization will be interested to help us toward this burden of expense.

Great interest has been taken in the Home by our old friends and also by some new ones. The Guild & Evans Alumni Association, the Needham Post of the American Legion, Wellesley College girls, the Pine Manor School, the Wellesley Hills Congregational Church, the Kiwanis Club, and many individuals have added to the comfort and the happiness of the children.

It seems at times to the Managers that we do not have the financial support that we should have from the public, which is due primarily to the fact that the Home is situated so far out in the country that people do not visit it and see for themselves these appealing little children. Also, the public has not yet learned the real value and saving in public health that efficient convalescent care means to the community.

What is our aim? What are we working for? Our aim is to be a clearing house for the Children's Hospital, so that their beds may be kept for the acutely ill, and ours filled with the long-time cases. We are working for complete cures, so that the child that has been originally admitted to the Hospital leaves the Convalescent Home a well child, and not one that without these added weeks at the Home would shortly be back again in the Hospital.

The Home is a separate organization from the Hospital and receives no financial aid from the Hospital, even though our work is so interwoven and our dealings with each other so satisfactory. This excellent co-operation between the two institutions is due to the splendid and self-effacing work of Miss Smith, the Superintendent of the Hospital, and Miss Guillod, the Superintendent of the Home, who for years and years have worked out our policy of dealing with each other.

Grateful acknowledgment is extended to all those who have given in the past, and it is earnestly hoped that they, and many others, will feel inclined to contribute to this work of helping suffering children through their tedious weeks of convalescence.

Secretary.
